

Programme Specific Outcomes of English General

PSO1- Comprehensive and Wide Knowledge of English Literature: After completing the programme in English General the Graduate-students will have a deep understanding of English literature from various periods, genres, and cultural contexts. They will be familiar with major literary works, authors, movements, and critical theories.

PSO2- Literary Interpretation and Analysis: Graduate-students will possess advanced skills in analyzing and interpreting literary texts. They will be able to critically examine themes, motifs, symbols, and stylistic devices used in literature and provide insightful interpretations.

PSO3- Proficiency in Academic Writing: Graduate-students will have strong writing skills and be able to produce well-structured, coherent, and persuasive essays, research papers, and other scholarly documents. They will demonstrate proficiency in using proper citations and referencing conventions.

PSO4- Research Skills: Graduates will be capable of conducting independent research in the field of English literature. They will be able to formulate research questions, gather relevant sources, evaluate and synthesize information, and present their findings effectively.

PSO5- Critical Thinking and Analytical Skills: Graduates will possess advanced critical thinking and analytical skills. They will be able to analyze complex literary texts, engage in literary criticism, and construct well-reasoned arguments.

PSO6- Cultural and Historical Contextualization: Graduates will understand the historical, social, and cultural contexts in which literary works were produced. They will be able to analyze how literature reflects and shapes its cultural milieu.

PSO7- Oral Communication and Presentation Skills: Graduates will be able to effectively communicate their ideas and interpretations through oral presentations and discussions. They will be in the position to demonstrate effective public speaking skills and the ability to engage with diverse audiences.

PSO8- Lifelong Learning: Graduates will be equipped with the skills and mindset for continuous learning and professional development. They must be motivated to explore new ideas, engage in intellectual discussions, and stay updated with current trends in the field of English literature.

Programme Specific Outcomes in English Honours

PSO1- Proficiency in English Literature: After completing the English Honours the graduates will have a thorough knowledge of the many literary genres, historical eras, and significant works of English literature. They would be able to evaluate and critically understand literary works.

PSO2- Research and Writing Skills: Through the study of literature, students will gain solid research and writing abilities. They will learn how to compile pertinent material, do literary analysis, and successfully communicate their conclusions in writing.

PSO3- Critical Thinking: The curriculum seeks to develop students' critical thinking abilities. The ability to assess literary works, recognise underlying themes and patterns, and provide meaningful interpretations should be a requirement for graduates.

PSO4- Cultural and Historical Awareness: By studying the cultural, historical, and social circumstances in which literary works are created, students will have a better grasp of these topics. They will have the ability to evaluate literary works in light of larger social movements and concerns.

PSO5- Communication Skills: The course places a strong emphasis on good oral and written communication abilities. Graduates in this programme should be capable of clearly expressing their thoughts and arguments in both academic and professional contexts.

PSO6- Independent Research and Analysis: Students will master the skills necessary to do their own independent research, evaluate intricate literary ideas, and formulate their own arguments. They ought to be able to advance the body of knowledge already established in the area.

PSO7- Critical Engagement: Graduates should be able to participate in literary conversations and debates critically, exhibiting their knowledge of diverse theoretical stances and literary criticism.

PSO8- Cultural Sensitivity: The course promotes tolerance for other viewpoints and cultural sensitivity. In order to promote an inclusive approach to literary studies, graduates should be able to interact with literature from many cultures, geographic locations, and identities.

PSO9- Transferable Skills: The programme also focuses on fostering transferable skills, such as problem-solving, time management, and collaboration, which may be useful in a variety of jobs.

